Report: "Let's enjoy Japanese games!" (presented by SIED)

Updated May 16, 2017

SIED hosted "Let's enjoy Japanese games!" on April 25th (Tue.) on Kyotanabe campus.

The participants experienced Japanese culture by playing traditional Japanese games such as "Kamizumo," "Daruma Otoshi," and "Daruma san ga koronda."

We welcomed international students from various countries such as France, Germany, China, and Pakistan. The local and international students actively communicated with one another and made new friends. Furthermore, the international students were able to learn part of Japanese culture that they had not known before.

We, SIED, strives to offer various events for you to enjoy throughout the year.

Whether you want to interact with people from different countries, want to learn more Japanese culture, or you want to get a first-hand experience on different cultures, our events will certainly meet your needs!

We look forward to your participation in our future events!
