

Art in Autumn: An Invitation to Indonesian Traditional Art

Gamelan Music, Wayang & Javanese Dance Performance

ガムラン音楽・ワヤン・ジャワ舞踊公演

10 Nov. 2017

【Free Entry】

Door Opens 13:00 Show starts 13:20
Running Time 1h10m

Clover Hall, Kanbai-kan
Muromachi Campus, Doshisha University

【Concert Program】 Gamelan Music, Yogyakarta Court Dance, Wayang, Jathilan

【Performers】 Hanajoss, Atsuko Takeda (Percussionist), Mio Nishioka (Dancer)

Gamelan is an orchestral music born and evolved in Indonesia, and Wayang is a form of puppetery from Java with settings of dramatic folklores. In this performance, we invite you to enjoy and indulge yourself in the Indonesian traditional art with intoxicating Gamelan music.

【About the Performer】

Indonesian Traditional Art Group, Hanajoss
Founded in November 2002 at Yogyakarta, Java. After their move to Osaka in 2005, their primary activities are Javanese Gamelan music and Wayang performance, workshops for all ages, music composition, concert direction, and artistic collaboration.

- Prior Reservation Needed (max. 80 people)
- ※Open to public as well as current Doshisha students
- ※The introduction will be given in Japanese.
- Please access the URL or the QR code for reservation.

<https://goo.gl/ZbrGEr>

※We manage personal information appropriately based on Doshisha's basic policy.