Report: "Cross Cultural Trip America -What's the American college like?-" (presented by SIED)

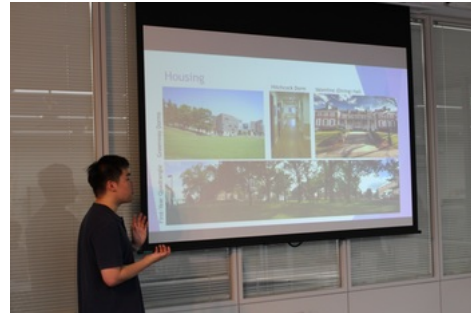

Updated Apr. 18, 2018

On April 11th (Wed.), SIED hosted "Cross Cultural Trip America -What's the American college like?-" at the International Community Lounge on Kyotanabe campus.

In this event, Mr. Levi Lee (the 57th Amherst Fellow) talked about Amherst College and his college life in English. Mr. Lee introduced various kind of facilities of Amherst College, such as an athletic field, dormitories, cafeterias, and so on. He used plain English and showed many photos during the presentation, so all participants were able to understand his lecture. After his presentation, participants enjoyed talking with Mr. Lee. They asked many questions about American culture or college life actively.

SIED will host "Cross-cultural Trip -The benefits of studying abroad & how to study foreign language-" on May 16th; we hope to see you all in this event!

At the International Community Lounge on Kyotanabe campus, Mr. Lee has "Office Hour" every Wednesday 3rd period. Feel free to come and talk with Mr. Lee!
