On November 18th (Mon), SIED hosted "Experience Kyo-Yuzen" at a workshop near KarasumaOike station. In this event, Participants challenged making their original handkerchief using Japanese dyeing technique called "Surikomi-Yuzen". There were so many attractive patterns, so participants wondered what to choose for a while. What they chose were; Kyoto's traditional temple, flower, giraffe, Kappa and so on. Participants put beautiful colors on their patterns with a brush while listening to the instructors carefully. Every participants' handkerchief was one of a kind. They seemed to enjoy talking and were satisfied with their design.

Like this event, SIED arrange various events that you can interact with international students and have a cross-cultural experience. We also have many events in December too. Why don't you make some more memory of 2019 with us?
