Updated Feb. 18, 2020

SIED hosted "Speak Up!" during lunchtime on Tuesdays throughout the spring and fall semester at the International Community Lounge on Kyotanabe campus. "Speak Up!" is a Kyotanabe SIED's regular event where students enjoy talking while having lunch.

In the spring semester, SIED presented different topics every week, and participants talked about it. International students from all over the world and local students socialized in Japanese and English. On December, we held "Let's Design New Year's Card!" and Christmas Party as special version of "Speak Up!". Some international students returning to their home country this spring said that these events became wonderful memories.

We hope "Speak Up!" allow all participants to make new friends or expand their perspectives. Why don't you meet students from all over the world at the international Community Lounge? SIED will host many interesting intercultural events in the next semester. We are waiting for you to join us!
